TOWN GETS LIT UP

After an enforced retirement in the gloaming, so to speak, for almost two years, the town got brilliantly illuminated last Saturday. (No, no, Clarence, you got us wrong—we don't mean that kind of illumination.)

With his new plant ready for service, Mr. Art Wade threw in the switch on Saturday night, and gave a free-grat-for-nothing treat to the natives. And boy, wasn't it good to be properly illuminated again! Some of the residents did not get this service on account of a short on one of the circuits, but those who were more fortunately hooked up, were very pleased with the demonstration.

The new service was officially started on Monday and promises to be satisfactory in every way. Mr. Wade is confident that he can maintain an A-1 service and will appreciate the support of the citizens of Oyen.

Mr. Wade is to be congratulated on his enterprise, in tackling the problem of lighting the town. The picture shows a courage that should be rewarded. The new lighting plant is a real service to the town and we wish Mr. Wade every success.

MAY APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT ON RATES CASE

Ottawa.—Granting by the railway commission of leave to appeal to the Supreme Court from the majority judgment in the Crow's Nest rates case is the first effective move by the prairie provinces to combat the abolition of the Crow agreement. While the leave is granted, the commission reserves judgment on the form of questions to be submitted.

There was conflict between counsel as to whether, as the railways claim, one fundamental question suffices, or whether there should be several. It is agreed that the primary question is whether the Crow's Nest is a special act overriding the General Railway Act, or whether the commission's authority under the latter is not circumscribed by any special enactment. Counsel for the provinces, however, desire, however, to go further and have the court pronounce on the question of discrimination, and whether the Crow's Nest Act, if valid, should be applied generally, or only to lines and localities existing in 97. The enlargement of the reference, it is argued, is unnecessary, by the railway commission, and forcibly so by Commissioner Boyce.

To Stimulate Production

Forward Agricultural Policy Adopted By Baldwin Government

London.—A forward agricultural policy on the part of the Baldwin Government is foreshadowed in an official announcement, stating that the government in consultation with the owners of agricultural lands, farmers and farm laborers, with representatives of the government, aimed at the adoption of methods to maintain an increase of arable land and stimulate a maximum production of foodstuffs.

The statement declares that the proposed conference should aim at the addition of at least 1,600,000 acres of arable land, but should not give undue attention to the production of wheat to the exclusion of livestock, dairying and other agricultural activities. It points out that cultivated land, in an emergency, be diverted to wheat, whereas normally it is not a national necessity to grow wheat to a greater extent than is required for profitable.

Foreign Press Criticism

London Evening Standard Remarks U.S. of the "Maine" Incident

London.—The press of the world in general is of somewhat different mind than the Conservative newspapers of England, there is ample evidence in long extracts from the foreign editorial pages which are pouring into London by wire and wireless.

The Evening Standard, in an editorial bearing the caption "The Foreign View," says of the press criticism in France and the United States:

"America asserts in regard to large parts of the globe a doctrine at least as strong as that for which we have secured recognition in Egypt. We must assert our own right to deal with that essentially our own affair, in our own way. This is not a slogan of the kind which the League of Nations is qualified to deal.

Based to American criticism that the British government has attempted to capitalize for state purposes, a sense of indignation, and to use an assassination to do the work of statesmanship it would be easier if it were desirable to resort to the use of force.

"The great republic is extremely sensitive concerning all attacks by foreign powers on its citizens and all assaults on national honor. We should hesitate to suggest that it would be wise to attack a man of that kind, but the American flag waves in the Philippines because that kind of man happened in Havana harbor."

PLOTS IN EGYPT MENACE LIVES OF BRITISH OFFICERS

London.—The discovery of a network of plots throughout Egypt, declared to menace the lives of British officials in that country and in the Sudan, from the governor-general down to civil clerks, has caused the British authorities to issue orders for the arrest and imprisonment of all prominent anti-British plotters.

Further arrests, possibly on a large scale, in Cairo and Alexandria, are expected to follow quickly the arrests announced recently, it is intimated in official quarters here.

Great Britain, it is stated, intends to safeguard the lives of its subjects, and it is the belief of the men on the ground that the best method is to arrest the plot leaders, no matter what rank or position they may occupy in their country. Lord Cromer, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, has expressed the opinion that the new Egyptian cabinet will co-operate in breaking up the plots, in addition to accepting the British demand that political meetings be banned.

Great Britain is placing much emphasis on this last demand, it being expected that the order of the Sir and the present crisis were, in the British view, the result of the Egyptian Government's slowing up action in the Sudan, and the fact that the elements were able to work on public feelings and to further such plots as that for the murder of the Sir.

Good Work Accomplished By The Royal Canadian Air Force In Patrol And Other Duties

Though the flying operations of the Royal Canadian Air Force during 1921 have taken up 2,500 hours of flying time, there has not been a single fatality or any accident of any serious nature to any of the personnel, which proves, according to a bulletin issued by the air force, "that flying as carried out by carefully trained personnel, is quite applicable to every day civil life."

Returns to the end of October a report of the total flying time, 1,220 flying hours were for air force training flights, etc., sixty hours were flown during operations with the militia forces, 18 hours joint operations with the Royal Canadian Navy, and 1,000 hours were flown by the wholly in connection with the work of other government departments.

The forestry branch is using the air service more and more. In recent months of Alberta and Manitoba this year forestry patrol involving 1,600 flying hours were flown, and three million acres of forest land in Alberta were covered twice daily by forest patrol in the west during the season of fire hazards. In Manitoba 40,000,000 acres were under observation from the stations at Victoria Beach and Norway House, and in some instances, fire fighting forces, with their pumps and gear, were transported to the scene of the fire by plane.

No less than 1,000 aerial photographs were photographed. A new feature of the flying programme for 1921 was the military protection work on the northern British Columbia coast. Other services undertaken were for the department of agriculture in connection with the investigation of the white blaster rust on the British Columbia coast for the department of customs, fire patrol and photography for the national parks board, photography for the waterways branch and the transportation of treaty money paying parties for the department of Indian Affairs.

Judging by the demands from other government departments, the 1922 programme of the Royal Canadian Air Force will be on a larger scale than ever before. These operations, it is pointed out, provide a valuable outlet for the energies of the air force and the character of the work is of great benefit to the general public.

Record of Holstein-Friesian Cow

Phenomenal Yield of Milk and Butterfat

One of the most interesting features in connection with the recent fall stock show held in Calgary was the dairy competition, in which a Holstein-Friesian cow bred by the Canadian Pacific Railway, made a most remarkable record. Entered in the class for cows under 55 months, this animal, straightened by the late, Mr. H. J. Smith, of the late Mr. H. J. Smith, (two and a half years old, gave 832 pounds of milk in forty-eight hours, carrying the phenomenal milk percentage of 5.2. Such a high test is so extraordinary that in order to have no doubt of the subject a second test was made with the same result.

Production Of Wool

Encouraging Increase Has Been Made In Past Few Years

Canada has made rapid strides in recent years in wool production, largely by a result of government grading, both the Federal and Provincial Governments being active in the promotion of this industry. Last year 1921, 529,416 lbs. of wool was produced in Canada, much of which reached the highest grade. As a result of grading, Canadian wools are now purchased freely on a graded basis in the United States and Great Britain, as well as in Canada.

I have decided not to care or to know what happens outside of my villa. Every evening I burn before an altar of stone the lamp of the day's unspent and unshared energy. ## Make Farmer's Lot Attractive

This Would Solve Half The Problems Of Western Canada

Hon. H. A. McKeown, chairman of the board of railway commissioners, in an interview at Winnipeg said, that so long as he was chairman of the board his object would be to do everything possible for the farmer. "Make the farmer's lot an attractive one, and half the problems of Western Canada are solved. To my mind we shall never get farmers to stay on the land until we make a profit of some 20 per cent. It is not a matter of making a good profit, I think in the past we have been working at a loss. We have been making a profit, but the farmer has not. The terminal elevators and facilities generally have not been profitable, and after that we have lost the farmer take the rest. Let us give him what is a reasonable profit, for his products," concluded Mr. McKeown.

Won Championship At First Appearance

Ontario Shorthorn Bred "King of the Patrias" Owned by Prince

Picked up in this condition at Mitchell, Ontario, last year by Messrs. Angus and Black, of Moffat, a white Shorthorn bull, just over three years of age, named Major Chief 12C, was awarded senior championship for shorthorn bulls at the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto. ### Sir Henry Thornton Speaks to Americans on the Possibilities of Canada

In a recent address before the Rotary Club of Boston, Massachusetts, Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railway, propounded a commercial development of Canada, paralleling the development of the United States west of the Mississippi after the Civil War. Sir Henry said further—"Canada is a great and powerful field awaiting the hand of the settler. We are not a customer of the United States. We are a producer of goods from each year. There is a great commercial activity and interchange of products now and this is the future. Canada's sole problem is that of population. If we had 25,000,000 we would have difficulties, but our problems would have disappeared."

More Wheat Exporters

Canada May Soon Have Greater Competition in Growing Wheat

A bulletin received from Montreal from the French ministry of foreign affairs states that France is determined to regain its old place in the world as a wheat exporting country, and that Canada may have to face competition similar to that of pre-war days.

According to the dispatch, M. Karam, the Soviet minister, is publicly declaring that France is determined to export only one-fifth of the wheat she exported under the Czarist regime.

Australia will compete with Canada as an exporter of wheat before 1925 is well advanced, declared Sir Mark Sheldon, of Sydney, N.S.W., in an interview. The Australian wheat trade has 100,000,000 bushels for export before the end of January, he said, and there are vast areas of low-priced land available for wheat growing still. In no other commodity which Canada exports extensively, however, did he think that Canada would be a competitor.

EDENDALE NEWS

SMALLPOX

It fell in the year of twenty-four,
Just at Thanksgiving time,
That head to her home did come,
And hereby hangs my rhyme.
And as she to the Valley came,
She brought a dread disease;
It made you frightened, it made you run;
It even made you sneeze.

For when to Oyen she returned,
So many germs she'd spread,
That all us folks had been exposed
And should have gone to bed.

Sir Percival in haste did ride
On Thursday to the door,
And said, "You must be quarantined,
You can't go out no more."

On the morrow, to the schoolhouse
Teacher and pupils chased,
But all who had no smallpox
We sent back home in haste.

For only those infected
Might dwell within that hall,
And all the others "best it"
Though loudly they howl.

Then we did form a private school,
A famous institute,
Where we could study all day long
And read and eat, to boot.

But when "unquarantined"
Would come to view our place
We'd loudly holler, "Smallpox!"
And close doors in their face.

And when we went out driving,
Upon a pleasant day,
We took a good strong pistol
To keep the folks away.

At home we did amuse ourselves,
And when we tried to bake—
Out of our smallpox oven
There came a smallpox cake.

All thickly pinkly spotted
With "poxes" big and small,
But we fastened creatures,
We ate it, one and all.

Our soup was full of smallpox,
And smallpox on our bread,
We arose in the midst of smallpox,
With smallpox went to bed.

We took our smallpox buckets,
And milked our smallpox cows,
We laughed our smallpox giggles
And had our smallpox "roves."

Read print between the smallpox,
Our clock told smallpox time,
We arose in the midst of smallpox,
With chlorinated line.

And tho' we still are quarantined,
Not one of us is ill,
While "frailty-eats" must stay at home
We run about at will.

And when the others realize
The things that we can do,
They all will beg Sir Percival
To quarantine them, too.

May I hold your hand, dear?
Of course not! This isn't Palm Sunday.
Well, it isn't Independence Day, either.

I got a girl for my name is Anne,
Her scander 'n' h-' of her old man,
He's way out in the Ku Klux Klan,
He's way out in the Ku Klux Klan,
When we're married, says he, we can
But when that happens I will see
If I can't join the K. of K.

(? The 'h' with him if he fools with me.)

Mediterranean Was Once Whole World

"EMPEROR OF SCOTLAND"
(AT FUNCHAL, MADEIRA)

WAITING PLACE OF THE JERUSALEM

history's pages. "Have you looped the loop around the Mediterranean?" is a phrase much in vogue, and each of thousands of wanderlust folk are able to say "Yes!" and with that they were going to loop the same old loop again.

The "Empress of Scotland," if a big steamship of 25,000 tons gross register and $7,500,000 displacement, could be interviewed, would say that she was departing on her fourth annual cruise of the Mediterranean from New York on Feb. 9, 1925, and that although she could find her way around in the dark she would much prefer daylight so that she would not miss any of the wonderful scenery of the Mediterranean. Passengers on the "Empress" will see Madeira, then drop in to pay a call upon Lisbon, Portugal, as well as another call upon Cadix, Spain, with Seville as a side trip. Gibraltar, the famous "Rock" next gets the once over, and then Algeria, capital of the French colony of Algeria is visited. Athens, Greece, Constantinople and the Bosphorus are next, and when the ship visits Beyrout and Haifa all the famous sights of the Holy Land are within a short distance of the vessel. "The storied Nile" awaits the "Empress" and 12 days are spent in seeing the cities of Alexandria and Cairo, the Pyramids, the Sphinx, etc.; then Naples, Pompeii, Rome, Monaco, Cherbourg, Southampton and other places. One can see a lot in 62 days in and about this cradle of civilization, and that's the job of the big alluring "Empress of Scotland," the largest vessel in the whole Canadian Pacific fleet.
